FREE FROM PAIN AND WITHOUT A STRUGGLE

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON GOES OUT INTO THE UNKNOWN TO MEET HIS MAKER.

And Daughter Away From Home and Did not Reach City Until After Father's Demise.

Funeral Took Place Sunday—His Former Cabinet Were Pall-Bearers.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

At 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the life of General Harrison went out. He was a great statesman, a man that had held the highest position within the gift of the people, known and honored by all reasonable men at home and abroad. News spread with the lightning flash the world over. The United States from her executive home down through the varied avenues of life put on mourning because of illustrious dead. He was indeed a great man, a leader, a man of ideas, a statesman, a hero. Not a partisan in any sense. Such as he attain to greatness and few are the number.

CHILDREN NOT PRESENT.

None of Gen. Harrison's children was present at his death. Neither Col. Russell Harrison nor Mrs. McKee had reached the city, although both were hurrying on their way to the bedside of their dying parent as fast as steam would bear them.

The General's little Elizabeth was brought into the sick room for a few moments to see her father and offered him a small apple pie, which she herself had made. Gen. Harrison smiled his recognition of the child and her gift, but the effort to speak was too much, and he could do nothing more to express his appreciation.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral of ex-President Har-

United States from 1889 to 1893, died yesterday at his home in Indianapolis. In his death the country has been deprived of one of its dearest citizens. A brilliant soldier in his young manhood, he gained fame and rapid advancement by his energy and valor. As a lawyer he rose to be a leader of the bar. In the Senate he at once took and retained high rank as an orator and legislator, and in the high office of President he displayed extraordinary gifts as administrator and statesman. In public and private life he set a shining example for his countrymen.

In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the Government and people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags on the Executive Mansion and the several departmental buildings be displayed at half-staff for a period of thirty days, and suitable military and naval honors, under the orders of the Secretaries of War and Navy be rendered on the day of the funeral.

Done at the City of Washington this fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, and in the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-eighth.

WILLIAM M'KINLEY.

By the President.
JOHN HAY, Secretary of War.

Kentucky Republican leaders have been assumed that Bradley will be Judge, Tinsley District Attorney and Steve Sharp Marshal in the Eastern Kentucky district. Mr. Yerkes is said to be sore over the defeat of Cochran, his candidate for Judge.

The Committee on Foreign Relations of the Cuban constitutional convention has not outlined any policy on the Platt amendment, and there is no unanimity in the convention as to the action to be taken.

U. C. T. A. Branch.

Owensboro business men have taken preliminary steps to organize a branch of the United Commercial Travelers' Association of America.

In Trigg county J. H. Ballard was shot from ambush, his arm being torn to pieces by a charge of shot. William S. Kitch has been arrested, charged with the crime.

Rufus Cummins Garland, a son of former Attorney General A. L. Garland, died at Fort Worth, Tex., Sunday. He had won some fame as a musical composer.

Rear Admiral Schley has been detached from the command of the South Atlantic station and ordered home. Rear Admiral Cromwell will succeed him.

Dr. S. F. Gano, Scott county's oldest citizen and many years a leading physician, died at Georgetown Tuesday. He was nearly ninety-four years old.

State Senator N. W. Utley, of Edgelyville, has announced that he will be a candidate for Congress in the First district to succeed Representative Wheeler.

At the annual meeting of Pennsylvania railroad a $100,000,000 increase in capital stock was authorized, making the total issue $251,000,000.

The cruiser New York, on route to the Philippines, will stop long enough to let the Sultan of Morocco know he must pay American claims.

Pat McDonald, the widely known Democratic politician and newspaper man, died at Frankfort last Thursday.

GENERAL HARRISON.

Man of Wealth, Temperate Habits,
Attentive to Business

And Received Big Fees For Able And Watchful Labor.

Gen. Harrison was worth about $300,000, represented in fortunate real estate investments in Indianapolis and stock in banking and trust concerns. His law practice since he left the White House has been confined largely to arguing questions of law before the United States Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court, where several of his cases are now pending. His only jury trial was the famous Morrison will case at Richmond, Ind.

The most important case in which he was engaged since he was President was the Venezuela boundary case. He was easily the master mind before that tribunal, although his victory was not as complete as he had hoped.

NONE BIG FEES.

Gen. Harrison's recent practice was lucrative. For his lectures at Leland Stanford University, he received $10,000. In the litigation of the Citizens' Street Railroad Company of Indianapolis over its franchise he, as counsel for the company, received $25,000. His fee in the Morrison will case was $20,000. His fee in the Venezuela case was $100,000, but it is understood the republic of Venezuela still owes a considerable part of that sum.

HIS GOOD HABITS.

The ex-President was always a man of correct habits. He smoked an average of three cigars a day—always of the best quality—and when he felt so inclined inhaled moderately of wine. He liked to hunt and fish but of late years was more given to quail hunting than any other sport. He always wrote his legal notes with a stub of a pencil no over two inches long and he pressed out it so hard it seemed he would drive it through the paper.

ONCE IN A VIOLENT RAGE.

The only time he was known to be in a violent rage was when someone stole the body of his father from the cemetery at North Bend, O. He resented it from a medical college at Cincinnati. As a lawyer he probably had no peer in America. He was thorough in preparing his cases, and his particular forte was the cross-examination of witnesses. If a witness were the least untruthful Mr. Harrison would soon "wind him up" as the lawyers say. His soul was wrapped up in his little daughter Elizabeth, and recently when she was sick he sat up with her and told her fairy stories by the hour. He loved children and they loved him.

LEW WALLACE HIS FRIEND.

One of his dearest friends was Gen. Lew Wallace, the famous author, who said: "His death will excite a feeling of regret, not only over the United States but in every country of Europe. The people there outside of political circles are as familiar almost with him as his fellow citizens of this country. There, as here, he is understood to be an upright man, a lover of justice and peace, in whose judgment the world rested, thinking it a security against wars and international troubles of every kind. They knew him to be a patriot, but respected him for his qualities as a man of the world. We may be sure every expression of grief uttered in America will find its echo in Europe."—Courier Journal.

Representative.

The Democrats of Nelson county have nominated Eli H. Brown for Representative.

Col. Wm. Carey Sanger has been appointed Assistant Secretary of War over the protests of Senators Platt and Depew, of New York.

POWER OF NIAGARA.

Runs, Lights and Heats the Pan-American Exposition.

In the central station of the Niagara Falls Power company there are ten huge dynamos in operation, each one of which generates 5,000 electrical horse power. Thus under the roof of this magnificent building is a total development of 50,000 horse power, which is said to be the largest amount of electricity generated under a single roof in the world. Ground for this remarkable power plant was broken on October 4, 1890, and the ten years that have passed since then have witnessed a wonderful development. When the idea was projected a few were bold enough to predict that in time the western New York locality would be benefited by the transmission of the power, but the extent of the benefit was, of course, left to the imagination. Even then, perhaps, the prediction was based more upon hope than upon expectation. However, the closing years of the nineteenth century witnessed a development that has commanded the attention of the entire world. From one of the great power stations at Niagara falls the transmission cables have stretched out over the intervening miles, and Buffalo long since was brought in close touch with the rapid-whirling generators that turn night and day under the influence of the mighty turbines actuated by the never failing supply of water from the reservoir formed by the upper great lakes.

There is no thought of holding a great exposition on the Niagara frontier, but when the plan of the Pan-American exposition was conceived, it was quickly recognized that the presence of Niagara electrical energy would be a wonderful factor in the success of the exposition. Day after day, as the plans of the exposition have been developed, the value of the transmitted force from Niagara has become so pronounced in connection with the Pan-American exposition that its application and use in various ways is believed to be a leading feature of the exposition. Visitors to the exposition will marvel at the electric effects. They will see the transmitted energy of Niagara used for light, heat and power purposes in the very latest lamps and apparatus.

There was a fine line of boats to Buffalo by boat and know that the vessel into Buffalo's beautiful harbor, hurried on down the river to the city to aid in operating the inclines and dynamos from which the electric current is derived for the illumination of the buildings and grounds of the exposition. In the effort to make the world in the electrical features of the Pan-American Exposition, Niagara Falls and Buffalo have joined hands, and what will be accomplished is not mere conjecture, but is fast becoming reality.

And bring children into the world to suffer from an inherited blood taint? People do not realize that foul blood may lurk under a fair skin, and that the fire smoldering in the blood of the parent may break into flame in the flesh of the child. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery puts out the smoldering fires of scrofula. It cleanses the blood from disease taint, strengthens the weak lungs, heals the diseased stomach.

"Dr. Pierce's medicine has done wonders for my two sons," writes Mrs. M. H. Harkley, of Leander, Tennessee, Co. N. Y. "Both had scrofula. I have lost two daughters in less than five years with consumption and scrofula. My eldest son was taken two or three years ago with hemorrhage from the lungs. It troubled him for over a year. He took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and has not had one in over a year. My younger son had scrofulous sores on his neck, but has not had any since he commenced to take your medicine."

Use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the bowels and liver.

Parloak of City's Hospitality.

On Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock two young men—James Bryan and James Bolton—of Bourbon county, attracted considerable attention on Main street by reckless driving. They were drunk. Their horse in a run left the street on West Main and went on the pavement, then crossed the street to the opposite pavement. One lady said she was frightened, as the runaway missed her buggy about six inches, and the young men seemed to be taking all sides of the street. There were quite a number of buggies on the street. A witness feared that they would run into a carriage hitched in front of the Christian church. These young men were promptly arrested, spent the night in jail, at nine o'clock Monday morning one of them was fined $9 for drunkenness, the other $19 for drunkenness and reckless driving.

This may have been their first experience. We hope it will be their last.

We do not know when or where they bought the whiskey. The seller of it may read these lines and see some of the fruits of his business—a business which should not be legalized.

Mt. Sterling Telephone.

Since December 1st last year the new company have been busy putting the plant into first class repair. In fact a new plant has been constructed, consisting of new poles, ranging in height from 45 to 60 feet. They will have cables extending from central to corner of Mayville & High, also to Main & Steamers streets, 1400 feet in all, with capacity in each for 100 pairs of wires for 100 telephones. The return wire from the cable boxes will be a large copper wire. This will be a great improvement and will greatly if not entirely obviate the humming noise caused by the electric currents in use by our electric plant. To the switch board has been added a new section, giving a capacity for 300 telephones. For protection in case of storm from all electric currents, at a large cost has been added the up-to-date invention. Many old phones have been replaced with new ones and in two weeks connections will be made over the new wires, and Mt. Sterling will have as good a plant as there is anywhere, with many connections. The company will continue to make connections until there will be one of the first of the country. It will not be long until every phone, 300 in number, will be taken at the rate they are going.

HANFORD

T. R. Foley, Owingsville, Ky., Secretary of the U. B. S. was in Washington at the inauguration and to visit his brother, Robert Foley, Messenger in the Patent Office. He was offered a position the pay of which was $40.00 per month, but preferred to remain in Owingsville where his earnings from his own business amount to about $50.00 per month.

MARCH COURT-DAY.

About 1500 cattle on the market. Quality of stock was fair. Trade was rather slow in the morning, buyers claiming that prices were too high. In the afternoon concessions were made and trade was much better. The best steers sold at $4 to $4 1/2. Yearlings were higher and sold at 50c or more. Heifers at $3 to $4. Cows at $3 to $4. Bulls at $2 to $3. Canners at $1 1/2 to $2. The scarcity and high price of feed was felt on today's market. The day was an ideal one and a big crowd was present from over the State, but no buyers from other States. Most of the sales were made after noon, but at about the prices quoted:

SALES.

Ike Fannen, of Ashland, Ky., bought 17 600 lb. yearlings of C. D. Trimble & Co. at 4 1/2c and a premium.

Clayton Howell sold 20 about 600 lb. yearlings to Jacob Trumbo at $26 per head.

Johnston & Blanton sold a bunch of about 500 lb. heifers to Mr. Anderson at $18 per head.

Green Allen sold 4 1200 lb. bulls to J. D. Reid at 3c.

Arnett & Keeton sold 6 about 600 lb. yearlings to Ike Fannen, of Ashland, Ky., at $27.50 per head.

T. H. Canan, of Bath county, bought a bunch of about 600 lb. yearlings at $30 per head.

Riley Chandler, of Bath county, bought 12 calves—steers and heifers at $12.00 per head.

Wm. Scobee sold 4 650 lb. yearlings to Jacob Trumbo at 5c.

C. W. Halsey sold some 800 lb. steers to Ike Fannen at 4 1/2c.

Jno. Rose sold 5 600 lb. heifers at 3 1/2c.

Henry Caywood sold 16 600 lb. heifers to Brent Hutchcraft, of Paris, Ky., at $3.65.

C. D. Trimble & Co. sold 8 about 650 lb. heifers at $25 per head.

J. D. Reid bought 4 1000 lb. steers from Arnett & Keeton at 4 1/2c.

Jones & Powell bought 7 725 lb. steers from Mr. Hiale at 4c.

Arnett & Keeton sold 4 825 lb. steers to Jno. Scott, of Clark county, at 4c.

HORSES AND MULES.

The mule market was quiet. The best price of the day was $285 for a pair of mares mules. Very few good ones for sale, and trade in medium mules was very slow, buyers claiming prices were too high.

The horse market was dull and little or no trading being done. No good horses for sale and plugs were too high to buy.

Thos. Hiale and Wm. Eubank sold to M. C. Saunders & Co., of Fleming county, their fine jack for $310.

The $800 jack sold by S. R. Eubank recently to J. C. Ray, of Missouri, took pneumonia on the way and died soon after.

MOREHEAD, Ky., Feb. 15, 1901. Received of the church at Mt. Sterling, a package of bedding and towels for use in "Hudson Hall," Morehead Normal School.

They left Hot Springs Saturday morning, taking a chair car to Little Rock. There a car was gotten and on it he was brought to this city. They arrived on Sunday's noon train.

Mr. Stewart's condition is very critical, his body being practically paralyzed and he takes but little notice of what goes on around him. He is extensively known here and in many parts of Kentucky and in many states, where he has conducted stock sales—horses and fine cattle.

Facts and Observations

ON A TRIP TO MOREHEAD, OLIVE HILL, DENTON, AND ASHLAND.

MOREHEAD.

The writer had never spent Sunday in Morehead so availed himself of an opportunity and on Sunday boarded the 12:45 train. In the afternoon Prof. Butts and McDiarmid took the editor to the heights overlooking the town—Castle Butts was the objective point. In the evening the writer preached at the Christian church. His remarks centered on the scripture; "We have not an high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, etc."

On Monday morning he accepted an invitation to conduct chapel exercises at the Normal and to talk to the pupils. The Normal has never been in a more flourishing condition. The enrollment was on that day 205 and there were more than thirty teachers. Rev. B. B. Neal arrived on that day with 8 young ladies from Carter county; others are expected. In the evening Rev. Neal preached at the Christian church. He expressed a determination that the saloons of flower county must go, and he, with others, are perfecting plans for the accomplishment of this.

CARTER COUNTY.

Circuit Court was to have begun but was postponed until the June term because a case of small pox was reported from Christie Creek about 7 miles from town. We heard some objection to this decision. The objectors did not regard the situation as at all dangerous, and thought that such interest as attend a session of Court should not be interfered with. Our stay was short so we went East.

Friday & Clayton have decided to W. T. Clay their stock of general merchandise. Mr. Fraley, who has been Sheriff for three years, will continue to discharge the duties of his office. Mr. Clayton aspires to the Democratic nomination for County Judge.

Mr. Clay, the now proprietor, came from Texas about three months ago. He is a brother-in-law of Will A. Young.

CANDIDATES.

The time for Democratic primary has not been selected. The following are candidates:

For County Judge, Claud Clayton (It is said that Rev. L. E. Mann will probably be a candidate); Sheriff Davis Caudell; County Attorney, Z. T. Young; Clerk, E. Day; Jailer, W. L. Hurling; Assessor, W. T. Pugh; Coroner, Cox; School Commissioner, Miss Cora Wilson; County Clerk, S. M. Parker and Frank White are talked of.

The Republican Primary was held March 2, and the following are the nominees: County Judge, Richmond Tassett; County Attorney, Charles Hitt; County Clerk, C. T. Terrell; Jailer, Ed Allen; Assessor, James Stuart; School Commissioner, Kenneth Mart; Coroner, Samuel Cornett.

OLIVE HILL.

On Tuesday we had two hours here but returned on Thursday. The town, already of considerable commercial importance is forging to the front and by mid-summer will see great changes.

We met Mr. George Carlyle, General Manager of the Harbison-Walker Co. This company is conspicuous as leaders in the fire clay industry in the United States. They had begun the erection of a large firebrick plant. It will surpass the Olive Hill Fire Brick Co. Contractors are now putting up 25 to 50 houses for the workmen. Later we will give other items.

BANKS.

The project is encouraging for the organization of two banks. The Olive Hill Bank has its vault and its safe in place and expect to be in business on Monday, March 18th. We hear that W. J. Hoot, of Morehead, is to be cashier. (We have requested further particulars.) The capital stock is $15,000.

The Olive Hill Deposit Bank has been organized with the following board of directors: R. A. Carpenter, Wm. White, L. C. Wilson, Dr. Jno. L. Robbins, J. Garvin, H. Fultz, Jas. S. Jarvis, of Carter county, and Sam Greene and Jno. Harper, of Elliott county. Capital stock is $15,000. They will erect a two story brick and hope to be ready for business in 60 days.

Prater & Walker have recently moved their stock of general merchandise from Salisbury and hope to be heard from in business circles.

Some of the young people will give an entertainment next week.

DENTON.

We had not visited the place since our courting days when we spent a Sunday here during a visit by the present Mrs. Trimble. We will not now grow sentimental and go sailing among the stars in contemplating those days and the subsequent years of happiness. We can wish for our readers an equal blessing.

STREET CREEK C. A. M.

The enterprise of the valley is the business of this company, of which M. M. Caswell, of Mt. Sterling, is President, and W. T. Tibbs Sec. and Treas. At present the working force is about 100 men. The daily output is 250 tons. For 14 years Mr. Earl Pritchard has been the General Manager and Wm. Nelson has been in the company's store for 12 years. We did not have time to go through the mines.

Prof. I. H. Booth is teaching a private school, the public term having closed. The attendance is about 35. The district has 207 of school age. The building is a two-story frame, nicely painted.

MERCHANTS.

Clark & Barrett have been here for 5 years. Cooney & Son began about 18 months ago. Millard, i. e. son, is a young man of pleasing manner and unmarried at present. Watch the marriage columns of the ADV for developments.

A. D. Reeves sells groceries and staples.

E. Webb, a native of Lawrence county, has been a merchant here for 10 years. Did not meet his wife and four children. His parents, aged 89 and 80, live at Glenwood, Lawrence county. They have 14 children—of whom 11 still live. Their son, Andrew, aged 58, is a "father in Lawrence," having 19 children (no twins) all living. About 2 years ago all were at home.

Mr. Bailey has a small store near Denton.

Dr. H. W. Sparks is the only physician and has a fine practice.

RELIGIOUS.

There are two congregations—Methodist and Baptist. They hold services in the school house. The Baptists are at work on a building.

SICK.

Tude Gallion and James Yates are very sick with typhoid fever.

DEATHS.

CLAY—On Wednesday morning we were at the coal tipple and saw the Weigh floss, Chase, Clay, a strong young man, actively at work. With in a few hours he was instantly killed by a coal buggy turning over on him. He was 25 years old. He leaves a wife and two children. According to custom among miners, as soon as a death occurs, whether of a miner or one of his family, every man at once quits work and does not resume until after the burial.

BROWNING—Mr. Browning, of Louisville, died on Tuesday night from blood poison resulting from vaccination.

Here we met P. R. Hatch, of this city, who was superintending the laying of new steel rail on the C. & O. The rails weigh 75 lbs. per yard, taking the place of 60 lb. rails. He was shopping at Denton Hotel, kept by Miss Jerome Duval. He spoke very complimentary of the accommodations found here at all times. We can testify that according to our experience he spoke truthfully. Boarders and guests were few, but the table was quite tempting. This comment is cheerfully made. We paid for our accommodations just as other men do. Our readers may think that all new-paper men pay their way with "penn or pen man" which is cheap. We would not get scared and run away if ALT. hotels would exchange courtesies for wide ups. We pay or offer to pay, quarter-day—no bluing and then write our Facts and Observations.

We wish to say that the lawyer of the town is Jerome Duval, who is also a Notary Public and the agent for the Columbia Finance & Trust Co. in managing their thousands of acres of land, etc. He will excuse us for not asking him to subscribe for the Advocate or to place an advertisement there.

KILGORE.

Here we met Thomas Bros., practical miners, whose coal is sold in our market. We took in the town in a rush and at 4:10 boarded the train for Ashland.

ASHLAND.

Rev. Howard Cree, of Mayville, for a week had been preaching at the Christian church. He answered the question "What must I do to be saved." There were 4 conversions.

J. M. King, formerly of Morehead, Ky., is a member of the congregation. He has a berry patch of 2 acres and for a change builds houses—like the C. & O. depot, Ventura Hotel, etc.

At 6:30 a. m. on Thursday we headed for home, stopping between trains at Denton and Olive Hill to finish up some work.

FINALE.

We could say much more but give ourselves and readers a rest. At home 4:10 p. m.

HANFORD

CLARK COUNTY ITEMS.

Jas. S. Ramsey and Miss Carrie Cookright will be married on Wednesday.

James H. Stokely, aged 59, died at his home in Winchester Wednesday of cancer in the stomach. He was Street Commissioner.

At Wales Mill, the infant son of James Turley, is very sick.

R. H. Combs, aged 66, died in Winchester on the 11th.

John G. White went to Clay county this week and assisted in settling the feud that has raged there for a long time. His brother, Rev. White, who was Sheriff of that county, has resigned and will move to this city to reside. —Winchester Democrat, March 15.

John G. White denies the report that he is to go to Louisville to edit a Republican paper and says he is in Winchester to stay.

Joe T. Wade is a non-partisan candidate for County Judge. His platform is opposition to the whisky traffic and he will make the fight on that issue.

W. S. McQuire and Miss Allie Owen were married at the home of the bride near Winchester on Thursday. The bride is daughter of the late Wilson Owen. The groom is a worthy young farmer of Madison county.

DRAINS AND SANITATION.

Ways and Means of Caring for the Public Health.

The basis of knowledge on which sanitation rests is furnished by the observation of facts on a large scale as they occur in actual life, says the Contemporary Review. Its aim has been the removal of conditions which experience has shown to be favorable to the propagation and spread of disease, and the substitution of other conditions. In general this means the removal of what we call dirt. Hence we get the purification of the ground by drainage, by refuse disposal, by impervious paving, and so on; the purification of drinking water by subsidence filtration, or by having recourse to unpolluted sources, deep wells and springs; the purification of food stuffs by inspection, and the destruction of unwholesome articles; the purification of the air by ventilation and regulations as to space; the purification of rivers by the diversion of polluting materials, and so on. Such was the line of activity, the aim being the improvement of the general conditions of life. It is in two ways; it removes those agencies by which disease is fostered and spread and it promotes health, thereby rendering individuals less susceptible to such risks as they may encounter. Another measure must be added of a different character—namely, the segregation of the sick as centers of infection; hence isolation, hospitals. But this movement was carried a very little way during the first period; its development belongs to the second, of which it is a very important feature. Twenty years ago isolation hardly existed; nobody went to the fever hospitals—there were scarcely any to go to; and the only infectious disease not received and treated in the general hospital was smallpox.

THE STUDY OF SUN SPOTS.

As Astronomer Tells of Possible Achievements in His Line.

"We can count," remarked Sir Norman Lockyer to a writer for The Strand, "upon the new century witnessing several most important achievements in the sphere of astronomy. To the progress of the science the most valuable contributions will probably be made in America, which now has more observers and better instruments than either England or Germany.

"The first of these achievements will, I think, enable us, by means of the spectra of sun spots, to forecast famines in India and droughts in Australia, as well as other important changes, a long time in advance. I have based on this conviction as the result of the work carried on in this observatory (South Kensington) since its establishment 25 years ago. We shall be able to predict not only the time, but the area and extent of drought and famine, thus rendering it possible to take timely precautions. This will certainly be an important addition to the practical service which astronomy renders to mankind."

When we first devoted attention to sun spots people only laughed at us, but it will be quite different when it is shown to have practical value. The Indian authorities are already taking keen interest in the connection which has been shown to exist between variations in the heat of the sun's surface and the amount of rainfall in subsequent years."

A COUNTESS-MAN.

Woman in Male Attire Who Married Another Woman.

Countess Sarralla May was an Austrian girl and attained celebrity some ten years ago. She was the daughter of a colonel, who, having a large family of daughters, brought up Sarralla as a boy. Her girlhood was passed in Pesh, where she visited cafes in men's clothing and drank and smoked with journalists and officers. She published a book under the name of Sauror, and appeared for the first time in uniform, shortly previous to the time when her family first tried to dissuade her from continuing her disguise.

She refused, however, and was next heard of as a senator for the daughter who had taken her in Kington. She was known there as Count Sauror Vay, and as such married the young woman, Marie Engelhardt. The swindle was shortly discovered, but not until after the count had squandered a good share of her "wife's" money.

THIN HAIR

Lots of people have thin hair. Perhaps their parents had thin hair; perhaps their children have thin hair. But this does not make it necessary for them to have thin hair.

One thing you may rely upon—

AYER'S Hair VIGOR

makes the hair healthy and vigorous; makes it grow thick and long. It cures dandruff also.

It always restores color to gray hair, all the dark, rich color of early life. There is no longer need of your looking old before your time.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"As a remedy for restoring color to the hair I believe Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal. It has always given me perfect satisfaction in every case." Mrs. A. M. Bennett, Aug. 15, 1896, Hammond, N.Y.

Pathetic Story of Young Wife's Suicide.

A tragic story developed at Cleveland, Ohio, in the suicide of Mrs. Grace Rogers. Last May her husband, Naylor Rogers, signed the following pledge:

"As God is my helper, I hereby promise on this day of our Lord, May 5, 1900, to be forever and forever abstain from the use of any intoxicating beverages. This I do for the happiness of Grace, my beloved wife, who loves me as she loves her life, and for the happiness of our unborn baby."

"NAYLOR ROGERS. 'Witness: George Rogers.'"

The pledge was broken. The heart of the wife and mother broke when she realized that her husband had not kept his promise.

HAPPY FOR A WHILE.

Naylor Rogers is thirty-two years old. In Munson, Penn., he worked and won pretty Grace Merritt three years ago. She was a school teacher, while he was a man of refinement and education. He had a good position with the National Bureau of Literature and Art. One day Rogers met convivial friends in Philadelphia. His homecoming proved to be the first cloud in the family sky. The young wife pleaded with her husband never again to drink. "Never again will this happen," said Rogers. But it did again and again. Then the woman asked for a written promise. He signed it.

A BROKEN PROMISE.

For a while all went well. Rogers was transferred to Cleveland. Soon a sunbeam entered the home. The mother named her baby "Hope." Her cup of joy was almost overflowing. Six months more went by. Hope cooed all day. Her mother sang. Monday afternoon of last week Rogers came home drunk. "Hello, Grace," said he, trying to steady himself. "how is little Hope?"

"Hope," said the woman dreamily, "Hope is gone." The woman sat in silence beside her baby's cradle. The men threw themselves on a couch and went to sleep. Later somebody was talking and he aroused himself. "My little Hope, good-bye," he heard his wife say. Then he opened his eyes. Kneeling by the baby's cradle was the mother. A moment later the woman fell to the floor. The husband rushed to his wife's side. "A broken promise," she whispered, then became unconscious. She had swallowed a big dose of morphine as she knelt by the cradle.

Money in Marrying.

Tennessee Gladin's late London husband, Sir Francis Cook, left an estate of $8,000,000. Her sister, formerly Mrs. Woodliff, is also the wife of a rich Britisher. These two Cincinnati adventuresses found marrying rich men abroad a prosperous business.

Prof. Trison, of Lonscoming, Md., killed a terribly thin man of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors had failed to cure him they told him to purchase a friend's advice the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "I have cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat." F. C. Duerksen.
